

Everyone was a winner at the Key Largo Casino this Halloween

The joint was jumping and the sound of Caezar Olarti and the Untouchables Band was the backdrop for the very special Halloween Happening at the Key Largo Casino next to the La Cabana on, you guessed it, Halloween night. The newly opened casino, coupled with the Blue Marlin Restaurant provided horrifically good fun for all those that made the scene including mother and daughter witches Gladys and Jamine from Queens, New York as they tried their luck. All those that purchased chips and took a chance at the tables also found they had the chance to win some terrific prizes as sexy witch and sales manager Delia called the raffle ticket numbers.

Amongst the many winners of gift certificates to Secrets of Aruba, Budweiser gift baskets and other fabulous gifts was Frank Rizzuti of Connecticut, who won a weekend stay at the villas of his resort of choice, La Cabana. Perhaps he can add it on to his stay, for a few extra days in paradise!

Fred Gillman, CEO of the Gillman Group and owners of the Key Largo Casino was in town for the festivities and happy to host the Halloween Happening with Technical Services Director Shawn Metcalf. Casino employees wore some frightfully attractive costumes, and delighted patrons found themselves being served by lovely dancing girls or playboy bunnies.

Whether they spent the night on the dance floor, at the tables, or just hanging with friends around the bar, it was a memorable Halloween full of fun at the Key Largo Casino!
